I'm a passionate tech enthusiast with hands-on experience building custom PCs for myself and others, as well as providing technical support to friends, customers, and coworkers. I'm an avid programmer who enjoys learning and working with tools like GitHub and Linux. I'm currently beginning a Bachelor of Computer Science at Edith Cowan University, majoring in Software Engineering. Professionally, I'm a hardworking and reliable bartender with experience in fast-paced, high-volume hospitality environments. I pride myself on delivering excellent customer service, practicing safe food and beverage handling, and consistently creating quality drinks from a wide range of memorized recipes. My background in both tech and hospitality reflects a strong work ethic, adaptability, and a commitment to continuous learning.
